

NEWS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The World of Law Enforcement Comes Together at Milipol Paris 2025 Where America Brings a Strong, United Presence

USA Partnership Pavilion features 43 American companies advancing security and law enforcement capabilities

Waldwick, NJ, USA and Paris, France — November 10, 2025 — This November, 43 leading American companies will join forces at Milipol Paris 2025, the world's leading event for homeland security and safety. Held at the Paris Nord Villepinte Exhibition Centre, the show features strong participation from international delegations, government agencies, and over 1,000 exhibiting companies and organizations.

Within the USA Partnership Pavilion, organized by Kallman Worldwide, Inc., 43 U.S. exhibitors will showcase cutting-edge technologies and services across security, defense, law enforcement, and emergency response. Spanning more than 1,724 square meters and representing 20 U.S. states, the Pavilion serves as a hub for American innovation and collaboration in the security and defense sectors.

From established industry leaders to small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), the Pavilion highlights the strength and diversity of the U.S. security ecosystem. This year, eight companies are exhibiting for the first time, reflecting the growing global demand for American expertise in critical areas such as cybersecurity, surveillance, perimeter protection, and counterterrorism solutions.

The USA Partnership Pavilion Meeting Point will serve as the central hub for business connections, hosting official ceremonies, networking events, and delegations throughout the show.

USA Partnership Pavilion Events at Milipol Paris 2025

All events will take place at the USA Partnership Pavilion Meeting Point | Booth #5-F062

USA Partnership Pavilion Opening Ceremony

Tuesday, November 18, 2025 | 1 PM

Join us for the Opening Ceremony of the USA Partnership Pavilion, which will bring together distinguished U.S. and international officials from public and private sectors to officially mark the U.S. Pavilion as open for business. The event will include formal remarks, a ribbon-cutting, and photo opportunities.

Invited Guest of Honor:

Prefect Yann Jounot, representative of the Ministry of the Interior and President of Milipol Exhibitions

Open to the public.*

USA Partnership Pavilion Networking Reception

Wednesday, November 19, 2025 | 3 PM

This exclusive event will bring together Pavilion exhibitors, government representatives, and invited guests to network and strengthen business partnerships.

By Invitation only.*

For nearly 60 years, the USA Partnership Pavilion has represented the strength of American industry and government collaboration at international trade events. Through the Pavilion, Kallman Worldwide helps U.S. companies connect with global opportunities, nurturing trusted partnerships that drive progress and security worldwide.

To connect with U.S. exhibitors before, during, and after the show, visit Sourcehere.com, the official digital directory for the USA Partnership Pavilion. Sourcehere enables visitors to browse exhibitors, explore products, and pre-arrange meetings directly with participating U.S. companies.

###

About Kallman Worldwide, Inc.

Since 1963, Kallman Worldwide has worked with individuals and organizations in more than 50 nations to advance global trade in STEM-driven industries. The company's portfolio of international trade shows, event management services, custom stand building and design, global supply chain networking tools, and workforce advocacy programs connects thousands of buyers and suppliers to more opportunities around the world every year. As an international U.S. representative, Kallman is a strategic partner of the U.S. Department of Commerce and a proud recipient of the President's "E" and "E Star" Awards for its active role in aiding U.S. exporters and in recognition of its export promotion efforts. The company is headquartered in Waldwick, NJ, with U.S. satellite offices in Washington, DC and Houston, TX, a Latin America office in Santiago, Chile, and a bureau in London, UK. For more information, visit www.kallman.com

Media Contact:

Serena Sidawi
Director, Marketing and Communications
Kallman Worldwide, Inc.
Email: SerenaS@kallman.com

